"United, We Live God's Will"

Once upon a time, there was a shopping mall. And as is true of all shopping malls, when the holiday season arrived, out came the decorations. As Christmas drew closer, the Santa Claus chair appeared, along with the elves and the big guy himself, ready for photos and to listen to the wishes of children hoping for certain treasures under the tree. But at this particular mall, among all the families, there also stood a clergyman by himself, dressed in black with a white collar. He waited patiently in line. When Santa was free, he stepped forward to speak with the jolly old elf. Santa looked puzzled and asked, "And what might I do for you?" The clergyman spoke in a soft, hopeful voice: "Santa, what I want for Christmas is for the budget at the church to balance." Santa threw his head back and let out a hearty "HO HO HO!"

Well, it is that time of year. And as is the case every year, we are once again relying on—counting on—your faithfulness and generosity at year's end. Currently, expenses are running ahead of gifts received for the fiscal year, though not any more than in years past. We have been able to balance our books almost every year since I have been here. It seems to be our pattern of giving. So please, help make this clergyman's Christmas wish come true. Better yet, help us continue to do the work of the church—touching lives and engaging our community with the gospel. Please remember, it is more blessed to give than to receive.

The church office will be open to receive year-end gifts until Wednesday, December 31st at 3:00 p.m. Thank you for believing in Christ and in what we do here at FSP.

Romans

by Jack Kuhatschek

We explore how the gospel renews both our hearts and our daily lives. When worship feels routine, prayer grows stagnant, or the world's patterns quietly become our own, Romans calls us back to the transforming power of Christ.

12 Daring Women of the Bible

by Lisa Harper

Host: Becky Mohling

Location: LOT

In this study of remarkable women, you'll discover timeless truths that speak into today's challenges.

You'll learn how to apply biblical wisdom to your own struggles, grow through both failures and successes, draw closer to God in difficult seasons, and find lasting contentment. This Bible study has started, but it is not too late to join!

Crazy Love

by Francis Chan

Host: Jessica Walston, Morgan

Savage, and Ashley Hajny

Location: Ephesians

This study invites us to recognize how easily we settle for a comfortable version of faith while missing the radical love God offers. Instead of religious routines or working harder at spiritual "to-dos," we're called to a vibrant, transformative relationship with God—one that breaks us free from complacency and compels us to live with purpose and passion. Encountering God's love changes everything.

TIME & TALENTS

It's Time for Our Annual Time & Talents Survey! During our March of Faith in January, we invite you to fill out a survey to help us understand where you feel called to serve. This year, we're doing the same—with one small extra request:

✦ We're asking everyone to fill out a survey, even if you already volunteer in a particular area!

Over time, our records have gotten a bit mixed up, and we want to refresh them so we can better support our volunteers—making sure everyone who wants to serve has the chance, and that we're not reaching out to those who prefer not to.

Thank you for helping us stay organized and for sharing your gifts with our church family!

The Royal Family KIDS Mentoring Program connects children with a safe, consistent adult each month for character-building, fun, and one-on-one attention from trained role models. Research shows that even one school year of mentoring can make a lasting impact—especially for kids facing tough circumstances.

A new mentoring group is launching here at FSP, and they need help getting started. Please support if you can.

✦ PRAYERS ✦ Cash ✦ Juice Boxes ✦ Kid Sized Scissors

✦ Small bottles of water ✦ Snacks (goldfish, nuts, chips, etc.)

✦ Volunteers to head a meal for around 40 people (or donate food for the meal.)

✦ Themed decorations or gifts for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentine's Day, or Easter (ie: Christmas trees, wreaths, wrapping paper, easter eggs)

For questions, contact Ethan Merchant, Director at (308) 940-2837 or rfkmentorship.hastingsne@gmail.com, Kathy Adelson, or Sandie Buhr.

WE WILL COLLECT A SPECIAL OFFERING FOR HABITAT FOR HUMANITY AT ALL CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES!

We invite you to consider a gift to support the meaningful work of Habitat for Humanity and the families they serve.

CHRISTMAS GIFT BAGS

We're delivering special care bags to members of our church family who may have trouble getting out, are grieving, or are in their golden years—a simple reminder that they are loved and cherished.

We also have a few extra unnamed bags if you know someone who could use a little Christmas cheer!

Come help assemble the bags on December 2nd at 1:00 p.m.

Bags will be ready for delivery starting December 3rd—take one (or more!) and share the love!
