

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We're so glad you're part of the FSP family!

Collin Brown & Sydney Erickson

Sydney Erickson of Pierce and Collin Brown of Bladen are engaged and excited to begin their faith journey together at First St. Paul's. Sydney works at the Hastings Economic Development Corporation and Chamber of Commerce, and Collin is a Doctor of Occupational Therapy at Go Physical Therapy in Grand Island. Together since 2023 and engaged since December 2025, they are looking forward to growing in their faith, building relationships, and becoming more involved in the church community as they prepare for marriage.

Mickinzie Gill

Kinzie has been attending First St. Paul's since meeting her husband, Trey. Together, they have two children, Piper (3) and Greyson (8 months), who are the center of her world. Kinzie works as an infant teacher at a daycare center. In her free time, she enjoys reading, cooking, and relaxing with a good cup of coffee. She is excited to officially become a member of First St. Paul's, continue growing in her faith, and raise her family in the church.

Garrett Stone

Garrett lives outside of Harvard with his wife, Beth, where they operate a small produce farm, Stone Quality Produce. He enjoys gardening, watching movies, and spending time with family. Garrett is excited to join First St. Paul's and continue growing in his faith.

Wes & Ashley Scherbarth Maddisyn, Emma, Rosalee

Wes and Ashley live just outside of Juniata on their small homestead, where they enjoy raising horses and chickens and tending to their garden. Wes works as an Agricultural Technician and Cowboy at the Meat Animal Research Center in Clay Center, and Ashley is a Licensed Veterinary Technician at the Animal Clinic. Their daughters, Maddisyn, Emma, and Rosalee, attend Adams Central and are involved in a variety of activities.

Kelsey Harms

Kelsey and Jordon Harms were married in December 2025 and are enjoying making their home near Glenvil. Kelsey works as the Director of the Nebraska Farm Bureau Health Plans, helping provide an alternative to health coverage plans available through the Marketplace. In her free time, Kelsey loves spending time with family and friends and enjoying life with their dog, Huxley. She is excited to be part of the First St. Paul's family!

Janice Gengenbach

Janice and her late husband, Dennis, began attending FSP when their son, Nate, and his wife, Nikki, joined the church after their marriage. Since then, FSP has been their church away from home, while Immanuel Lutheran in Bertrand, near their family farm, remains their home church. Janice was grateful to have Dennis's Celebration of Life at First St. Paul's following his passing on March 31, 2026. She plans to continue worshipping at both First St. Paul's and Immanuel Lutheran.

Brooke Fraser

Brooke is a licensed mental health therapist and clinical social worker who grew up mostly in Ravenna, with time spent in Texas, Puerto Rico, and Maine as a child in a military family. She enjoys spending time outdoors with her family, animals, writing, and playing games. Brooke and her husband, Kellen who grew up at FSP, have two children, Kainen (5) and Octavia (2), along with a dog, Dora, and two cats, Daisy and Toulouse. A fun fact about Brooke is that her family once rescued a displaced Quaker parrot following a hurricane in Puerto Rico!

Dalton & Tayler Olsen

Dalton and Tayler were married in 2022. In July 2025, their family grew with the arrival of twin boys, Declan and Donnie. Dalton works as a farmer and enjoys spending his free time outdoors hunting and fishing. He is also a dedicated storm chaser for Nebraska Weather TV, where he follows and reports on severe weather across the region. Tayler is a devoted stay-at-home mother who enjoys caring for their twin boys and supporting the family. In addition to her role at home, she serves her community as an EMT and firefighter with the Holstein Volunteer Fire Dept. and the Kenesaw Volunteer Fire Dept. Declan and Donnie were baptized at FSP in September.
